

The California Association for Environmental and Outdoor Education presents the Southern Fall Conference 2018
YMCA Camp Surf, Imperial Beach, CA

Friday October 26- Sunday October 28

Camp Surf Join us for Fun in the Sun at one of southern California's premier summer camp and outdoor education destinations. Camp on the beach or stay in cabins. This will be a weekend filled with fun and informative workshops, campfires and of course amazing people. Camp Surf is located right on the beach in south San Diego County

15+ environmental education workshops, a Keynote Speaker, Saturday night campfire entertainment, free surfing depending upon board availability. Four meals are provided: including Saturday night dinner, Sunday potluck breakfast and tent camping or dorm accommodations.

As details become available about this conference, you will find them posted at <https://aeoe.org/events/>
